

Panorama

1966

A day begins with a school bus ride and then classes fill the time until lunch
when the students have a chance to talk to friends
and refill empty
stomachs; more classes occupy the time before extracurricular activities and afterwards going home
is the end.

PANORAMA

Published by the Students of
Washington High School, Phoenix, Arizona
Vol. XI—1966

Assistant Principals—Edward Cospers, and William Jones

Advisors—Robert Winthrop, Franklin Taylor
Editors—Sarah Ulbricht, Susan Hubble

For everything there is a beginning
and an end—
a day,
a dance, a sport, a school year—freshmen are a beginning
and seniors are an end—
the 1966 PANORAMA Staff would like to portray this school year of 1965-66 as a series of beginnings
and ends—
this is the beginning of the year's record, and with the presentation of this book,
the year's work
has come to an end.

All Things Begin . . .

A dance begins with the selling of tickets.

The scene takes place with the Tokyo 2000

A race ends as a sprinter crosses the finish line

... And End.

School Life

A traditional occurrence in each home game - the mighty Ram team plows through the trash pail.

Ram Spirit Pervades Games, Pep Assemblies

Patient to a plenty is provided by such pom-pom girls as Pam Welch.

The Pep Club has the task of decorating for each home game.

Concentration rather than boredom registers on the faces of coaches Brown, Perkins, and Swerdluger as the football team is introduced at a pep assembly.

A Bite Some Fill WHS

Choice of the Day or another of the nourishing meals fills the bill for Rensselaer students.

For some lunch combines with last-minute preparation of that forgotten assignment.

It's hurry up and wait, but the lunch line usually moves pretty quickly.

To Eat, Quick Gossip, A Typical Lunch Hour

Let me out - this group seems to be saying as they wait for the gate to be opened after lunch

'And did I tell you about . . .?' Lunchtime is a good time to catch up on all that has been going on around school

Sometimes lunch hours are so crowded with activities that it's necessary to have lunch on the run

Cooperating school dance Mr. Woods is wondering where the students get their pop

After the football game is over students wait in line to get their pop for the dance

Writing and twisting to such local bands as the Laser Beats and the Playboys or to Herman's Hermits on record Rams has it up at it after game dance

School Dances Draw Big Crowds

Junior Bob Burns introduces The Suedes at one of WHS's many school dances.

Strenuous dancing makes Danny McIntyre thirsty. A cool refreshment is welcome as he buys a coke from Debbie Jacobson and Marke Henke at a school dance.

Unusual gyrations are performed by WHS students at all of the school dances.

Girls Exhibit Chivalry During YOB Week

"Turn about is fair play" at WHS during YOB Week. Girls exhibit the chivalry that they wish boys would show to them all year.

Climaxed by a girl-asks-boy dance, the week provides lots of laughs and enriches the life of all WHS Rams.

Roberta Kleykamp shows how it shouldn't be done during YOB Week as, with books balancing precariously, she attempts to open the door for Ed Blankinship.

Judy Lane demonstrates that women are not always the weaker sex to Skip Peterson.

Adhering to the tradition, Valerie Rowles ties Jerry Hoeg's shoe.

Tired out from the effort of carrying books for boys and other activities of YOB Week Carol McWilliams rests.

Courtesy is forgotten during YOB Week as boys pile on the bus in front of the girls.

Traditions, Trivialities Make Up A Day

Probably the busiest places on the WHS campus are the locker areas. Good-natured jostling and the usual jokes about bottom lockers make for lots of fun.

It's too bad for the students hurry — their next classes.

WHS principal, Mr. Berry puts a notice in one of the teachers' boxes.

Freshmen have the unofficial task of keeping the Ram Plaque clean
Senior boys good-naturedly enforce the tradition

Bewildered freshmen sometimes are sent on a wild goose chase by upperclassmen

(Below) Little Mac, "WHS's oldest student," always has time for a word with the students as he performs his duties

Jan Wash, Greg Scheibel Reign Over Homecoming

Queen Jan gets the chivalric treatment as Dick helps her from her shiny chariot.

Proudly taking a turn around the field, Sharon Zimmerman and Tim Peterson represent the sophomores.

Carrying his riches as King, Greg Scheibel dances the first dance with Queen Jan.

The happy ceremonies of homecoming are briefly interrupted by the appearance of Queen Jan Wash. Standing in for King Greg Scheibel, Dick Placek seems perplexed about his circumstance.

A tearful but happy Jan Wash reigned over Homecoming festivities. Crowned during half time, Jan was escorted by Dick Placek who stood in for Greg Scheibel who was busy preparing for the second half of the game.

Later, Jan was joined by King Greg at the Homecoming dance and the happy couple shared the WHS kingdom.

Alums and students slid and jerked to music provided by the Counterpoints.

Pictures of past Homecoming Kings and Queens lined the walls of the gym to add to the theme, "Memoirs of Washington High in Review."

The pride of the Freshman Class Debbie Cowan and Diana Creed represent their class in the festivities.

Each
Yet

Typical of most WHS girls, Liz Schneider rips out her rollers as she crams for a test before making the last minute dash for the bus.

The bus is coming! Richard Hubsch dashes from the house, grabbing his sweater, as he sees the big yellow van approaching.

Day Seems Routine In Many Ways, All Are Different And Interesting

Lockers are a major problem, especially full ones Here Liz wrestles to keep the front books from falling while reaching for a book in the rear

A part of each day is set aside to catch up on the latest campus news.

A snack provides energy to get through the day (below)

Pondering what was said in class and at the same time wondering if she'll see that certain someone, Liz walks to her next class

Classes Sometimes Interrupt Fun

Occasionally the fun of a school day is interrupted by a classroom lecture such as this one in Mr. Stacy's government class.

The body as well as the mind needs developing. Richard Huebsch gets a workout by lifting weights in P.F. class.

Busy Day Comes To End

The final bell rings to end another day of school and the students rush down to the patio

After school Liz gets a chance to talk over the events of the day with her friends

Finally it's time to head for home and Liz and Richard walk wearily out to their cars

Take A Taste A It's All

It's not so bad to take a test when everyone in the Freshman Class has to. This group is working away in the cafeteria.

The first step to that prize—possession of a driver's license, is taking safety education.

Test, Treat — In A Day

The pause that refreshes. Amid the heart and bustle
Star-Smuth-Kee-Vee with its popside.

A part of every day is the use of the library. It is a place where every day these books are put to use from Mrs. Leta Erickson.

Sales, Fill

Sandwiched in between the games, dances, meetings, bus sessions, and athletics each student finds time to spend several hours a day in class.

It doesn't pay to go to school without change because some organization is certain to be having some sort of sale to raise money for its pet project.

Classes School Day

Everyone is a Ram Booster. Dr. Berry shows that he is no exception as he purchases a booster button from JoAnn Baray

In the fall long before most students are at school, the band is practicing their snappy halftime routines

Practice Can Make for Perfection

B1 A1 Cheerleader Kathy Stratton prepares for a pep assembly by rousing the crowd to cheer for the Rams

Finishing up last night's homework, many students find the library to be a quiet sanctuary

'Was that test hard?' is a comment often heard as Rams gather around the practice

W.H.S. Sponsors City —

Glen Snyder gives his rendition of "My Dog Blue" at the annual Hootenanny.

Becky Armstrong entertains the crowd with "Greenfields." She also sang and played guitar to "Sweet Home."

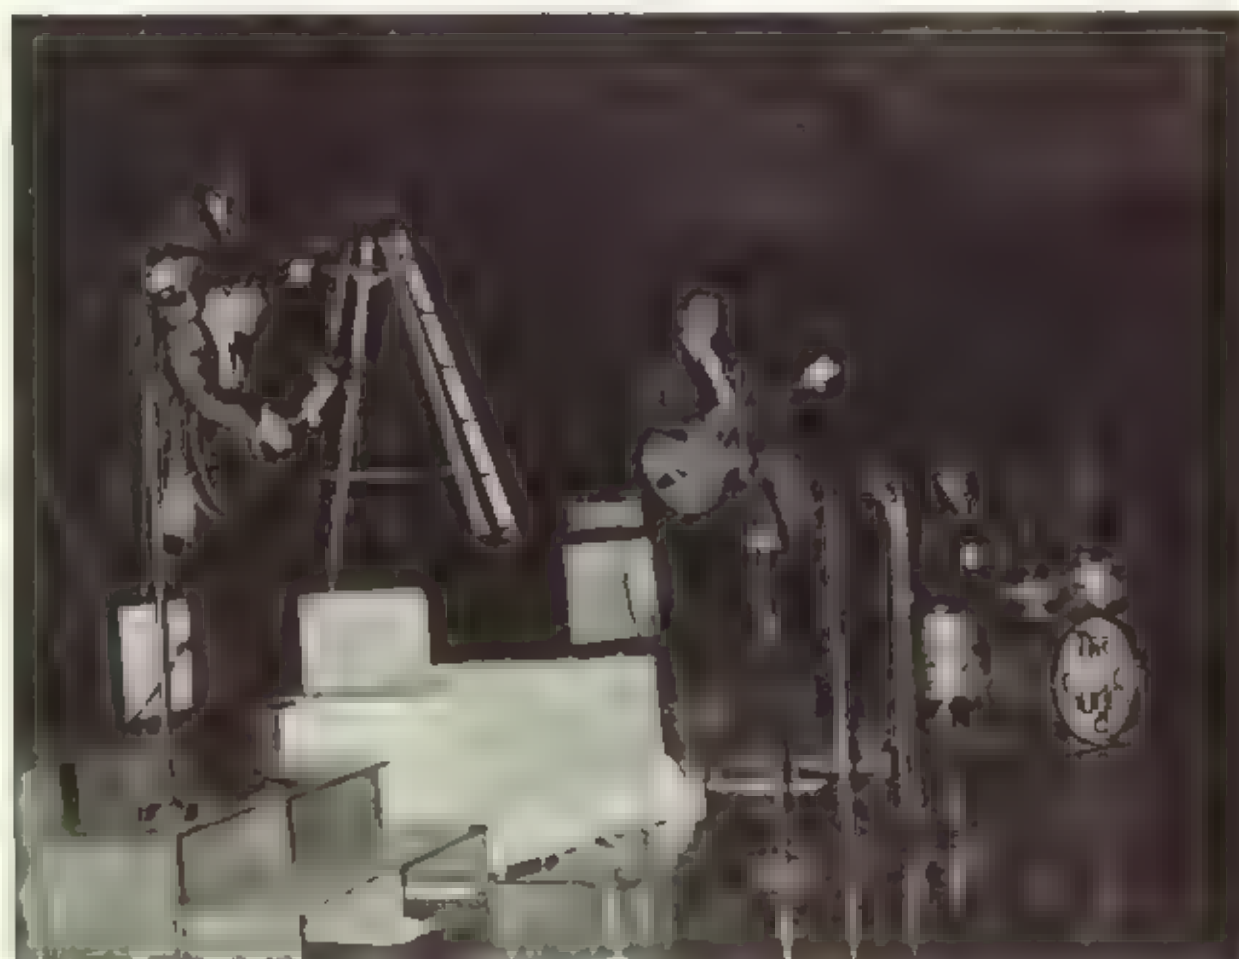

The annual Hootenanny, held this year in January, raised money for various Student Council projects such as AFS, Cheerleading Camp, and WHS's boy in Vietnam, Pham Van Sang. Students from various Valley high schools are invited to sing in the show, being selected through tryouts before the big event.

Vivian Schmunk, Celeste Haren, and Chris Shaljian add a comical note to the show singing "You Can't Roller-Skate in a Buffalo Herd."

Wide Hootenanny

From Alhambra came the Zeme brothers, presenting a comedy act fashioned after the Satchers Brothers ethnic antics

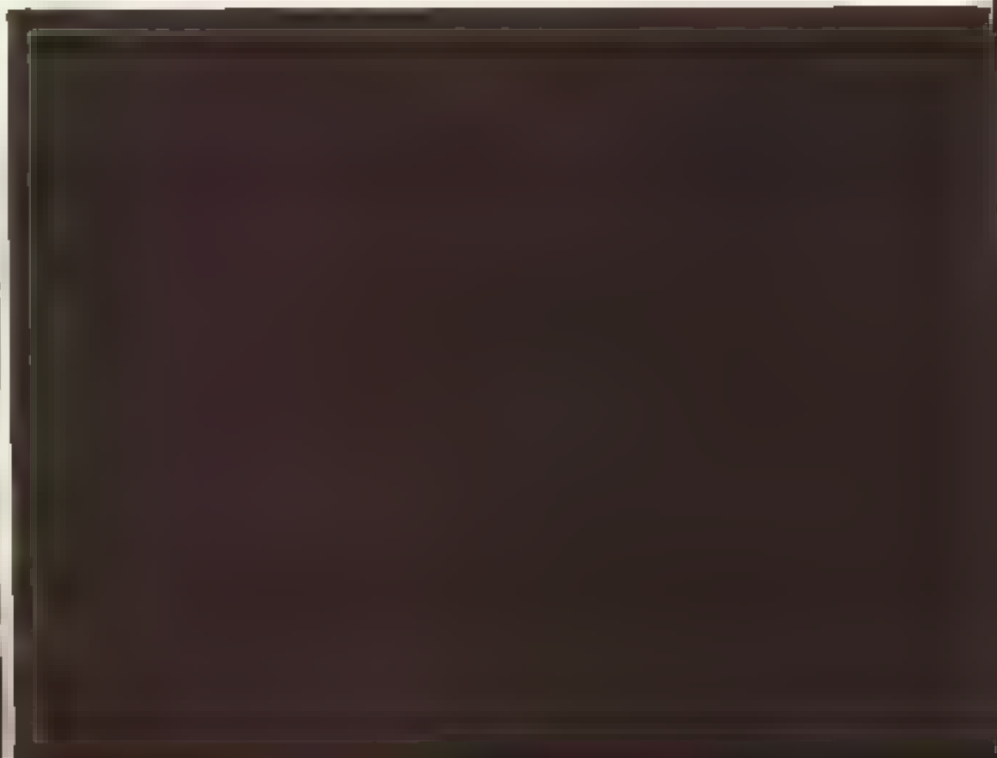

Jerry Manfredi, Bud Nunez and John Scrivano on guitar and Gary Batsell at the drums, a group known as the "Suedes," entertained during intermissions

Michelle Feder walks through the crowd while singing "Downtown"

BALLOTS

Royalty

PANORAMA King Added

New this year is the Annual King. The first Run to be awarded this honor is Gary Hendrix; this year's Queen is Jan Wash. The Panorama Royalty is selected on the basis of service to the school and personal popularity. The attendants this year are Greg Scheibel, Ellen Oxentenko, Larry Kuch and Babs Ausere.

Radiant Couple Reign Over Homecoming

Jim Wash and Greg Scheibel were chosen to reign as Homecoming King and Queen of 1965. Crowned by Jackie Armstrong and Rex Beaman, they were cheered from a field of ten candidates.

The other attendants who served as Senior attendants are

Mike Dineen
Babs Aversen
Vicki Malsen
Garth Henn
King Greg Scheibel
Queen Jan Wash
John Trachland
Paul West
Irene Ovensink
and Tom Rees

Junior attendants were Diane Stone and Steve Kalwara

Happiness overwhelms Queen Jan Wash while Dick Ptacek, substitute for Greg Scheibel, hides his face from the camera

The Sophomore Class chose Sharon Zimmerman and Tim
Peterson as their attendants

Freshman royalty are Debbie Corn and Doug Creed

Snow Royalty JAN WASH and GARY HENDRIX start off the first dance after being crowned.

Jan, Gary Reign At Christmas Formal

"It's a Marshmallow Winter" was the theme of this year's Christmas formal. The dance, presented annually by the Senior Class, was held in an all-white gym. Music was provided for the couples by Ray Andrade's Orchestra.

This was the second year the Seniors have chosen a Snow King and Queen, making it a tradition for coming years. The Royalty was chosen on the basis of service to the school through leadership, scholarship, and community service projects. They were selected from 15 nominees.

Surrounding the royal couple are attendants Babs Ausere, Larry Kach, Mike Donovan, and Teri Ong.

Ellen, Steve Reign Over "Black Forest"

The annual Sweetheart Formal, presented by the Junior Class, is traditionally girl-ask-boy, and climaxes YOB Week.

This year's theme was "A Walk in the Black Forest." The juniors carried out the theme by placing live trees around the gym. The dance was semi formal and music was provided by the Nomads.

Right—ELLEN OXENTENCKO and STEVE ROBERTSON were chosen by the Senior Class as Sweetheart King and Queen. Senior runners up were TOM REID and CATHY CEGLOWSKI.

Representing Junior Class attendants were CARLINE ANDERSON and DOUG GEORGE.

The Freshman Class chose JEREMY STRAUSS and KATHY GORDON as their attendants.

LINDA SUAREZ and TOM FREEMAN were Sophomore Class royal ty.

Yarbrough Ranks No. 1 In Class Of '66

Consisting of approximately 450 seniors, the graduating class of 1966 will be led by Gary Yarbrough, valedictorian

Chosen as co-salutatorians were Linda Hubble and Richard Kronenfeld. Also named at the graduating ceremonies will be about 45 honor students

Gary Yarbrough demonstrates one of the many reasons he is valedictorian by working a difficult mathematical formula

Richard Kronenfeld and Linda Hubble share honors and prove that studying pays off

Citizenship, Scholarship Earn Honors For Rams

Those chosen to represent WHS at Boy's State in Flagstaff were Harry Peterson, Gary Batsell, Mik Donovan, Eddie Murphy, and Bart Chapman. Girl's Staters were Carol Christensen and Babs Ausere. Not pictured is Jan Wash. Both organizations were created to better young people's understanding of government.

Gary Yarbrough and Linda Hubble were named Elks Most Valuable Students for 1966.

Attending Anytown last summer from WHS were David Lee, Trudi Ong, Ken Jones, Ginny Klaverkamp, Ellen Oxentenko, and Tom Reid.

Exchange Students Enrich Culture Of Washington

Because Ecuador means "equator" in Spanish, it was natural that Stan would have his picture taken at the equator monument

This year Washington High was enriched by a tall blonde package of warmth and friendliness from Vienna, Austria—Gerlinde Krissl. Gerlinde, who hopes to be an art critic in the journalism field, wrote a regular column, "From Austria with Love," in the Ram Page.

Student council vice-president Stan Mabbit was sent to Ecuador as an American representative during the summer of 1965. Stan gained valuable understanding from living with an Ecuadorian family. He shared the information by speaking to various WHS clubs.

Gerlinde expresses her delight upon entering the surprise birthday party which was given for her by AFS and NHS.

(Lower left) Gerlinde, in her native costume, and Stan discuss their speeches for the AFS Assembly, which presented various exchange students from other Valley schools.

(Lower right) Stan helps Gerlinde with the charm bracelet she received from NHS and AFS.

Louise Monseur, winner of the WHS DAR award, struggles through the short, but difficult test on citizenship necessary to win

Chosen for her outstanding cooking and sewing ability is this year's Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow for Washington, Linda Hubble

The Bausch Lomb award for outstanding promise in the field of science was presented to Harry Petersen. He was selected by the faculty of the Science Department

Rams WIN Awards In Arts, Sciences

Faculty and Curriculum

Students in Industrial Cooperative Education are trained to work various industrial jobs after their required classes

WHS Students Learn Manual Skills

Jonnie Madson, Randy McMillan, Linda Suarez and Woody Taylor put to use the skills of square dancing they learned in PE

Business law classes present an actual case with the students portraying lawyers, witnesses, the judge, and court reporter.

Business Classes Train Students for Jobs

Boys, as well as girls, have found that the ability to type is highly important in the modern world.

Girls Get Practical Experience In Home Ec

The Play School is an example of how WHS girls learn by actually working with young children. Here Sandy Scott helps keep the youngsters entertained.

Pat Greene agrees that working with children is fun and educational.

Culinary skills are not neglected. April Beall is one of the girls who knows that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach.

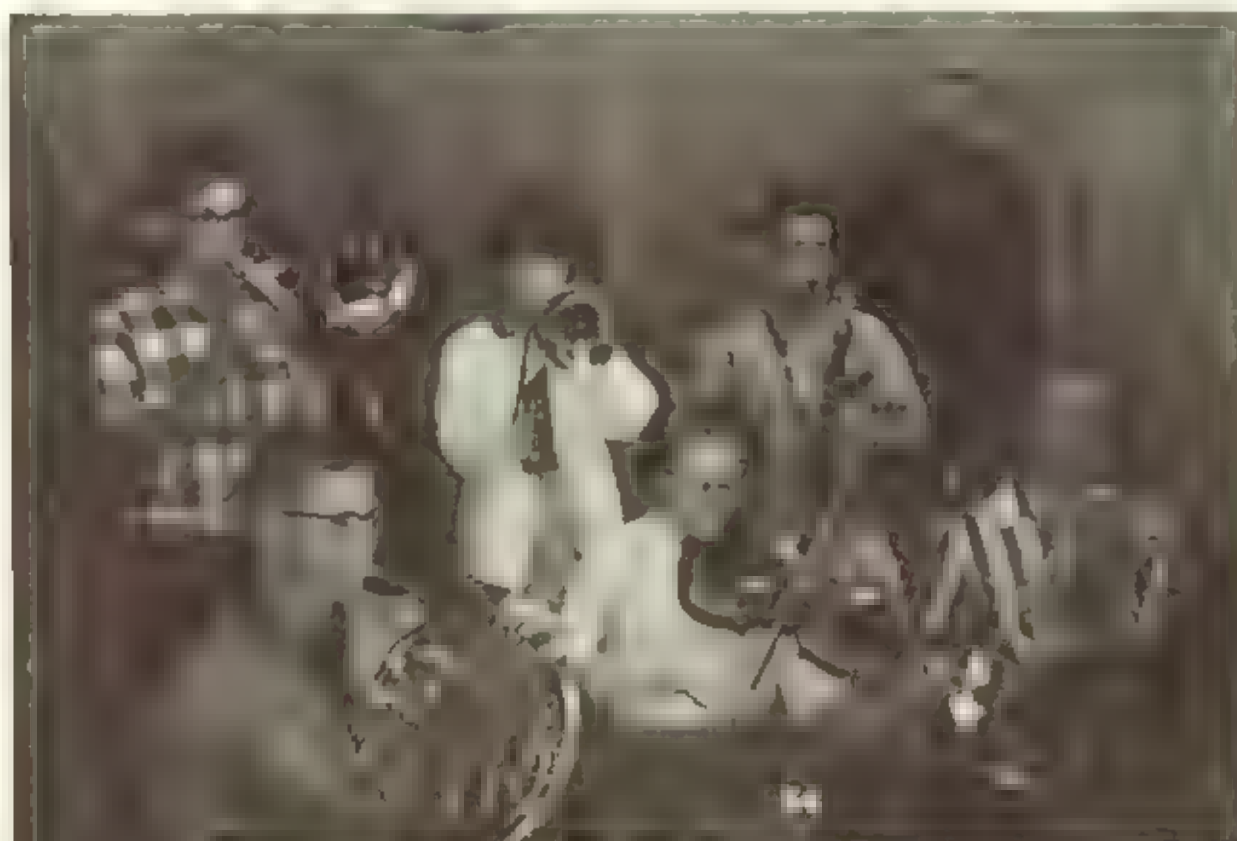

The excellent chorus presented concerts, musical programs and entertainment at various school functions

Musical Education Is Not Neglected

The WHS chorus began the year with "A Musical Concoction" which they presented to the public October 12. Selections ranged from "The Star Spangled Banner" to "Chim Chim Cheree". A part of the regular curriculum, the choruses give students training and appreciation of music.

Instrumental music is taught in band and chorus classes. The band provides entertainment at football games, marches in parades and presents concerts. Orchestra students present concerts and play for school musical productions.

Members of the WHS band and chorus who made All State are: Row 1—Barry Holt, Gretchen Schroeder, Ed Hanigan. Row 2—John Ladd, Lynn Ulbricht, Ray Letcher.

Modern Equipment Adds To Learning At Washington High

Freedom to express their thoughts adds greatly to the learning atmosphere for students

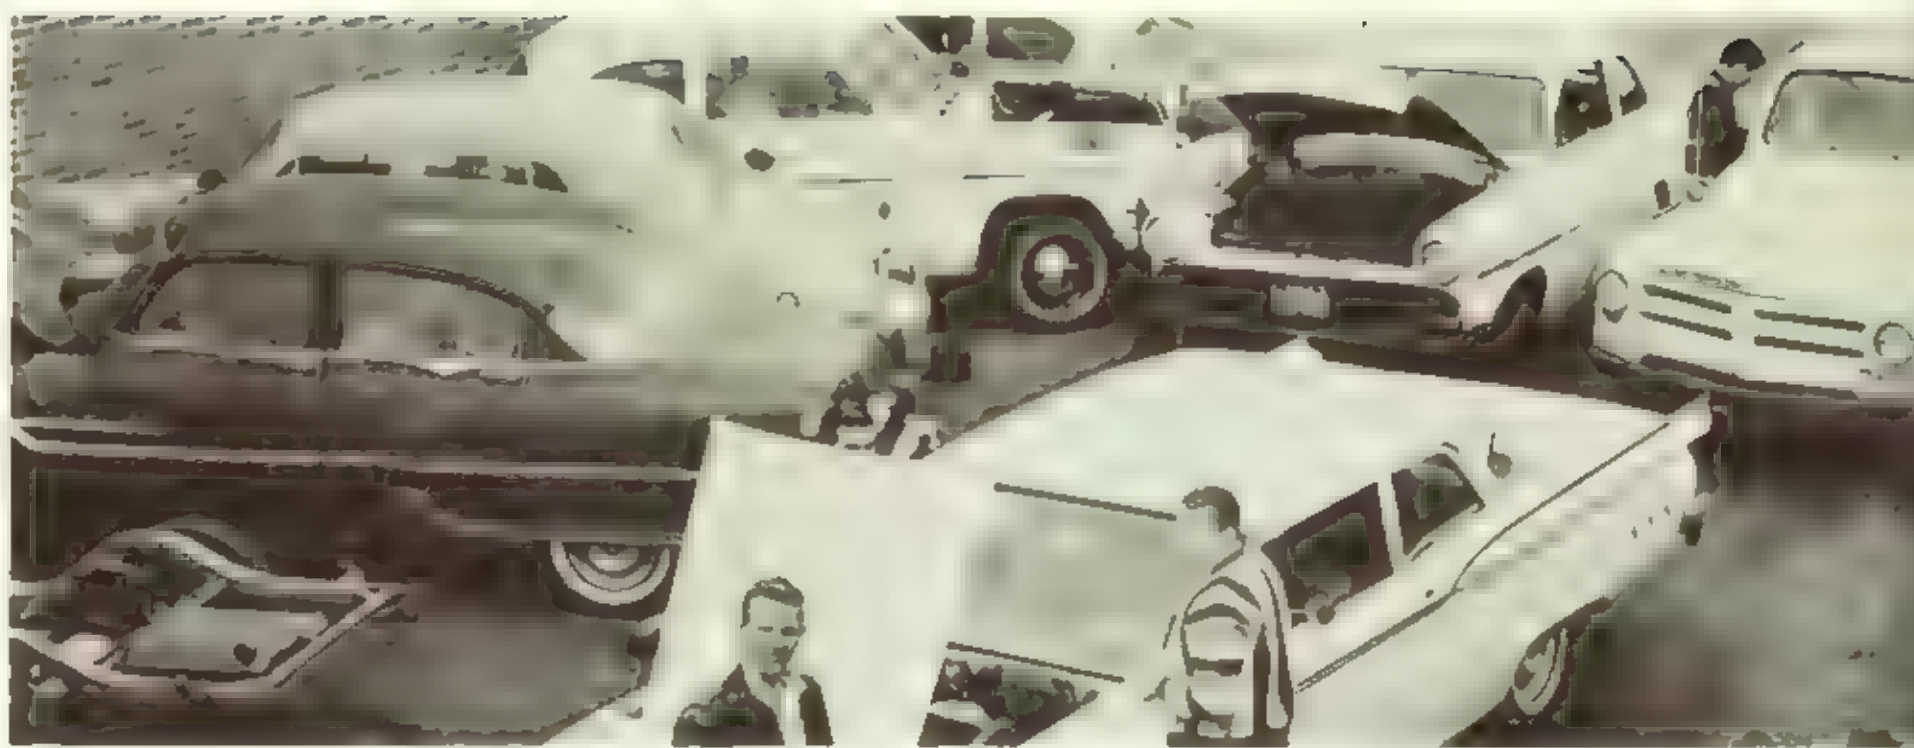

Movies and other audio-visual aids are used extensively at WHS to increase students' knowledge

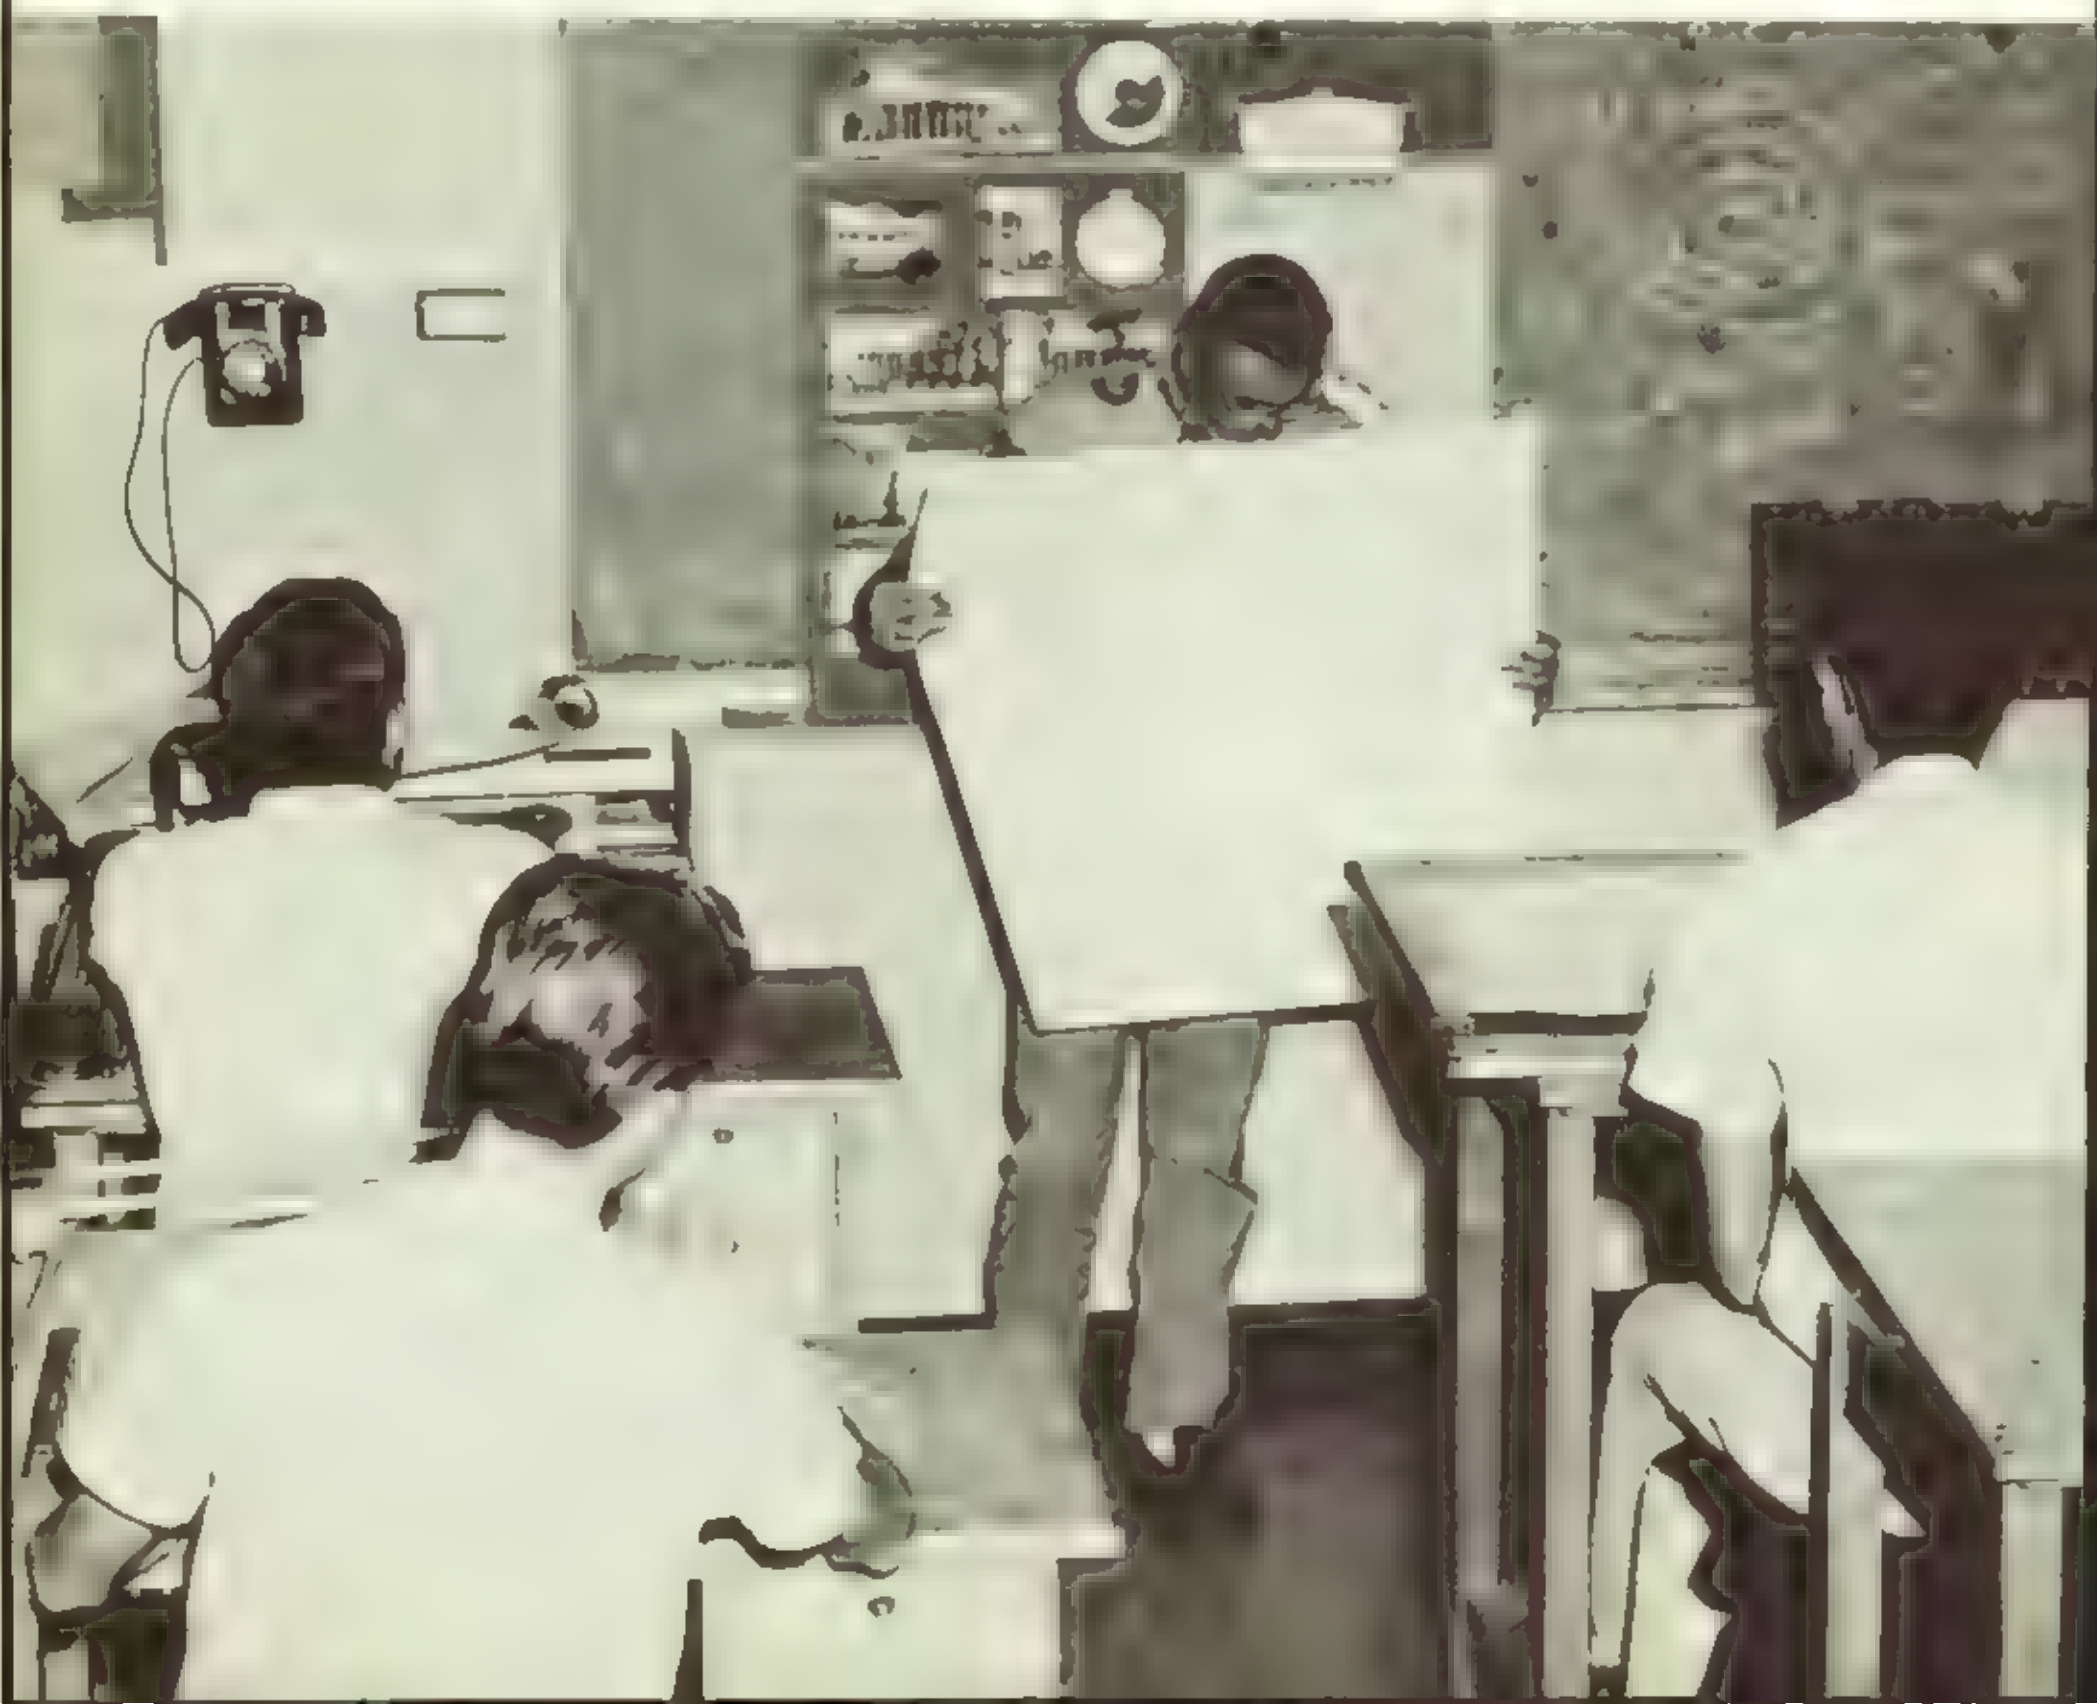

Frequent tests serve to measure students' achievements and to test their understanding of the subject

This is not a used car lot but the area back of the automotive shops where students learn to repair automobiles by actually doing the work themselves

Blueprints and floor plans are part of the studies of drafting classes at WHS

WHS Provides Well Equipped Industrial Arts Department

Shop classes give students a variety of training in vocational skills

In metal shop boys learn the techniques of welding which can benefit them vocationally

Using a giant slide rule, Mr. Broten explains the use of the valuable mathematical aid

Math, Science Departments Keep In Step With Time

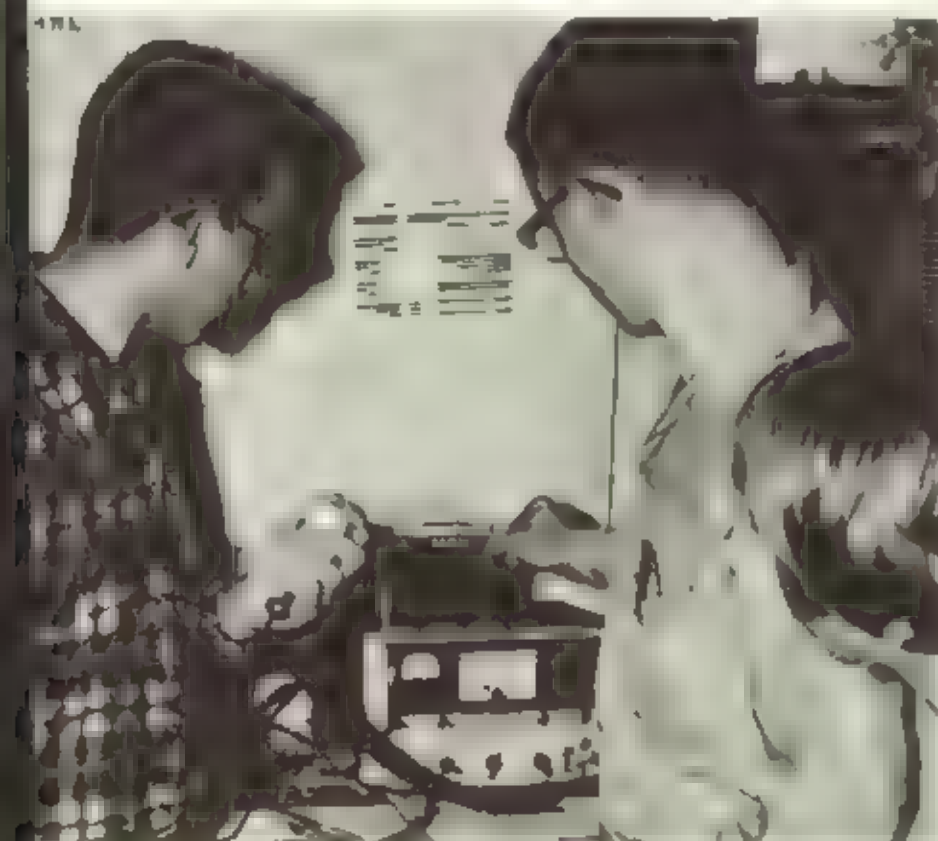

To prepare students to live in this science-oriented era, a wide variety of math and science courses is offered

Algebra, trigonometry, geometry, physics, chemistry, biology, and physical science are some of the courses that are offered as requirements and electives

Dissecting frogs teaches students the elements of anatomy

Although it may seem like Greek to some people, Mr. Sexton's students recognize the work on the board as a chemistry formula

School Builds Bodies, Minds

Proper use of the trampoline provides well rounded exercise

The body as well as the mind is provided for. Here girls in physical education class improve their balance and poise on the balance bar

Students Learn Fine, Culinary Arts

Art students work in a variety of media. Using tiles, glue, and grout, these artists prepare a mosaic

Third hour creative foods light up a Fruit Kabob which was the dessert in their barbecued foods meal

Mr. Stacy lectures a government class

Lectures, Displays Increase Students Understanding

Work done in class as well as homework adds to students understanding of the subjects

Mr. Herb Fabreand is one of the teachers at WHS who has found that interesting bulletin board displays sharpen students' interest in the subjects. He also plays music to increase students' appreciation.

WHS Continues To Advance Under Capable Administrators

DR. WILLIAM E. BERRY, in his seventh year as principal, has watched Washington High School grow since it first opened in 1955. A great deal of the advancement of the school can be attributed to his capable leadership.

The father of two girls, Dr. Berry earned his doctor of education degree earlier this year from Arizona State University. This makes him the only principal in WHS's history with this high degree.

Dr. Berry admires mosaic ram which is the symbol of Washington High

MR. WILLIAM JONES is WHS's new assistant principal. In charge of registration, he holds a BA from Davis and Elkins College, and an MA from West Virginia University.

The father of one daughter, Mr. Jones relaxes by bowling, pitching horseshoes, and playing golf.

MR. EDWARD T. COSPER, assistant principal for student activities holds a master's degree from ASU. Before becoming assistant principal, he was a crafts and shop teacher.

The father of three children, Mr. Cospers obtained his office in 1960.

Faculty And Staff Work Well Together

Understanding counselors help students plan courses, apply for scholarships, and choose vocations. Here Mrs. George talks with Tom Murphy.

Mrs. Nancy Jacobsen, Mrs. Inga Lorch, and Mrs. Jackie Geiger compose the capable office staff who are always ready to answer questions and arrange appointments.

Office Workers Help WHS Run Smoothly

Student absences are the concern of Mrs. Virginia Barry and Mrs. Margaret Brown who work in the attendance office.

Grades, activities, transcripts and many other items of information fall under the jurisdiction of Mrs. Bonnie Jones and Mrs. Virginia Brown.

Cafeteria Staff Knows What Students Like

Everyone looks forward to lunch as a time when he can talk and relax with his friends. This time of day is made even more enjoyable when students and teachers are served a hot and delicious lunch by the cafeteria staff.

Under the careful supervision of Mrs. Christensen, WHS's cafeteria manager, the cafeteria staff supplements the student's diet with healthful meals.

Their menu includes such delicacies as lasagna, spaghetti, meat loaf, and "choice of the day."

Under the capable management of Mrs. Arlene Troyer and Mrs. Marjorie Smith, the snack bar is a success with the students.

S. Cooperman, M. Pinneo, and H. Peterson set up the experiment the club exhibited at the Science Fair

Knowledge Gained Experimentation and Observations

Interested in all forms of scientific study, these members of Science Club thoroughly explore subjects introduced in WHS science curriculum. They learn by experimentation, research, discussions with guest speakers and taking field trips. They also entered a prize-winning project in the Science Fair at ASU.

Radio Club Furthers World Communication

Each of the 12 members of Radio Club owns his own shortwave set. This enables him to communicate with the 2,000 operators in the United States, and also those in such countries as Red China and Soviet Russia. To obtain an operator's license, the members must take a written test.

MEMBERS OF RADIO CLUB ARE: Jim Elliot, Mike Pinner, Steve Cooperman, Dan Lepansky, Kendall Kistler, Karen Blazer, Mark Beeny, Robert Shapiro.

Vocational Industrial Clubs of America, sponsored by Mr. Chez Schmidt, helps WHS students to obtain more experience in preparation for future industrial positions. Members attend school for half a day and then proceed to their various jobs.

Masquers Entertain

Above and below are two pictures taken of the Masquers play entitled The Importance of Being Earnest.

MASQUERS CLUB

Each year, Masquers Club brings live drama to WHS campus. This year, they presented "The Importance of Being Earnest" an English drawing room comedy. In addition to this fall attempt, "Time Out For Ginger," a comedy about a 14-year-old tomboy, was produced in the spring.

WHS Musicians Entertain Students . . .

The band and orchestra, both under the direction of Mr. Bill Bearden are an outlet for the creative and cultural needs of many WHS students. The band, which worked hard to provide halftime entertainment at football games, received a rating of "excellent" at the annual Band Day in Tucson. After playing three songs, they were judged on their performance on the field. The orchestra provided excellent accompaniment at the Christmas Choral Concert, and joined the band to provide enjoyable music at various other concerts.

... And Represent School

Ten outstanding WHS band and orchestra members received special recognition this year for their musical talent. Representing the school at the All state band and orchestra Feb. 7 were Gretchen Schroeder, Barry Holt, Ed Hanigan, Lynn Ulbricht, John Ladd, and Ray Letcher. Chosen as members of the Phoenix Youth Symphony were Lynn Ulbricht, Gretchen Schroeder, Sue Lepinski, and Barry Holt

Ram Page Staff Works For Top-Rated Paper

The Ram Page Staff promotes school news, student opinions, and school spirit in the bi-weekly editions of the Ram Page. In spite of the extreme busyness characteristic of staff members, the senior journalists sponsored a drive for "Operation Hand clasp," a U.S. Marine project to send soap, pencils, clothing, toys, and food to the people of Tan Tru, an impoverished village in South Vietnam.

Bonnie Crow, Robby Robinson, and Mary McLean examine donations for Tan Tru.

Two Clubs Foster Journalism Interest

Operation Handclasp, a major activity of Quill and Scroll this year, collected used articles for poverty-stricken Vietnamese. In addition, the club provides scholarships for junior journalists to Publications Workshop and finances the awards program.

Inkslingers are junior journalists who, by working on the Ram Page or Panorama, may become members of Quill and Scroll. To raise funds for Publications Workshop, they sold fortunes and washed cars.

Carol Browner, Linda Rasmussen, and Wendy Bills work out a problem concerning their yearbook page.

Panorama staff members are: Top Row—Sue McKinley, Brenda Sample, Trudy Halderman, Judy Branson, Latty Meyer, Renae Harper, Liz Fagan, Ann Gwinn, Wendy Bills; Row 2—Nancy Jones, Susan Shelley, Susan Hubble, Sarah Ulbricht, Linda Lyon, Sue Kammer, Susan Sain, Liz Schneider; Bottom Row—Rhonda Whaley, Ethel Livingstone, Carol Browner, Linda Rasmussen, Karen Berman.

Sarah Ulbricht Heads '66 Panorama Staff

Everyone joins in to help identify senior pictures

"Can't meet you after school," or "Mom I'll be late getting home tonight" were common expressions of Panorama staff members.

Done entirely on an extracurricular basis, work on the yearbook began in the spring of 1965 and continued for a year.

Editor Sarah Ulbricht and her assistant, Susan Hubble, attended Publications Workshop at Flagstaff in the summer to learn more about producing a yearbook.

Sharing common problems, the staff and their advisor, Mr. Winthrop, became a close group. As a small reward, the hard workers received awards in the spring and were treated to a preview of their "baby."

Photo Staff Takes Pictures For Annual

Photo Club assumes the vast responsibility of taking the majority of the pictures for the school annual. This time consuming job proved to be hectic, confusing, and frustrating when deadlines had to be met. However, this deadline was finally met—slightly overdue—a look of relief replaced the look of discouragement on the photographers' faces

Pep Club Boosts School Spirit

Undoubtedly one of the most important clubs on campus as far as promoting school spirit is the Pep Club. An extremely large club this year, these girls painted posters to boost school enthusiasm at the games, decorated goalposts, and sold programs.

Linda and Susan Hyble hurry to finish decorating the poster for the football game.

MEMBERS OF PEP CLUB ARE Top Row—S. Placek, C. LaFon, K. Holmeren, M. Eagen, K. Jeffries, G. Black, L. Kingsley, S. Cosper, C. Chincy, C. Conners, M. Loncaric, M. Mathews, B. G. Higgins, J. ## Y-Teens Sponsor Christmas Party

As two of their many philanthropic projects, Y-Teens had a Christmas party for handicapped children and helped put on a party for some children in a nursery. To raise money for their projects, they sponsored a dance and a carwash.

Hi-Y Promotes Community Service Projects

HI-Y MEMBERS Dave Helster, Scott Giddings, Jim Dunn, Dave Wodrich, and Tom Lawson, play an exciting game of basketball.

This year, Hi-Y has the largest membership in WHS history, 45 boys. Because community service and healthy recreation are the goals of this worthy club, a long list of activities distinguished their year. Among their numerous projects were a car wash, a Christmas party, and a basketball tournament.

Hi-Y members relax during a basketball tournament.

Brotherhood Week was facilitated by the Brotherhood Assembly. Here, Edna Murphy tells about Boys State.

Foreign exchange students from around the Valley participated in the AFS Assembly.

AFS Strives For Brotherhood Of Man

To promote brotherhood is the main purpose of American Field Service. The organization is responsible for the student exchange program.

AFS's first exchange student, Gertrude Kross, was in the country in 1914 after the U.S. had gained

COE Provides Job Training

Bob Mills, president, presides over COE meeting.

A new club on campus this year, Cooperative Office Education, provides on-the-job training for students who plan a career in business. In addition to required classes and the regular COE course, the members take an elective and then go to their various office jobs

Mrs. Ellis, Teri Watkins, and Sherry Franz interestedly attend a meeting

Industrial Arts Club Assists School, Community

Besides assisting school clubs and organizations with industrial projects, the Industrial Arts Club makes toys and functional aids for handicapped children's institutions. Among the club's other activities are field trips to industrial businesses, guest speakers, and industrial movies.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB MEMBERS ARE Paul Jones, Tim Holtzen, Dean Hershbarger, Gary Halverson, Bill Fieldmier, John Donna, Joe Harris, and Mr. Stoessel—sponsor

Student Council: Center Of WHS Activities

WHS Student Council is one of the largest and most successful in Arizona. Among their numerous activities are: a hoot-enanny, a work day, a teacher matching picture contest, and two food drives at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Through the Council's efforts, WHS gained recognition as KRUX's "School With The Most School Spirit." Student Council is also responsible for the fourteen assemblies at WHS this year.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS ARE: Becky Tognoni, publicity manager; Mary McClean, recording secretary; Liz Kingsley, treasurer; Stan Mabbitt, vice-president; Louise Monseur, president; and Pam Horton, corresponding secretary

Senior members initiated into N.H.S. last year perform the traditional formal induction of new senior and junior members

Lettergirls Hold Sales, Enjoy Social Life

To encourage school spirit Lettergirls this year sold megaphones and cow bells to be used at the games. Volleyball playdays and a barbecue with Lettermen added to the girls' social life.

Girls earn their letters by participating in GAA activities or playing on the varsity tennis team.

Marilyn Jean, Pam Fryer, Sandy Starr, Donna McDermott, and Carlene Anderson admire a letter sweater with medals and pins from play days and club activities.

Lettermen enjoy the Harlem Clowns game

Lettermen Influence School Spirit At WHS

By such projects as the Harlem Clowns game, the WHS LETTTERMEN influence school spirit and good sportsmanship on campus. From the proceeds of their fund raisings, they give scholarships and aid to the needy. Other projects include playdays and a barbecue with Lettergirls.

Pom, Tennis Take Practice For Perfection

One of the props that the pom squad has to employ at each practice as well as in their performances is the record player

Tennis, under the coaching of Mrs. Vogt is not always just fun

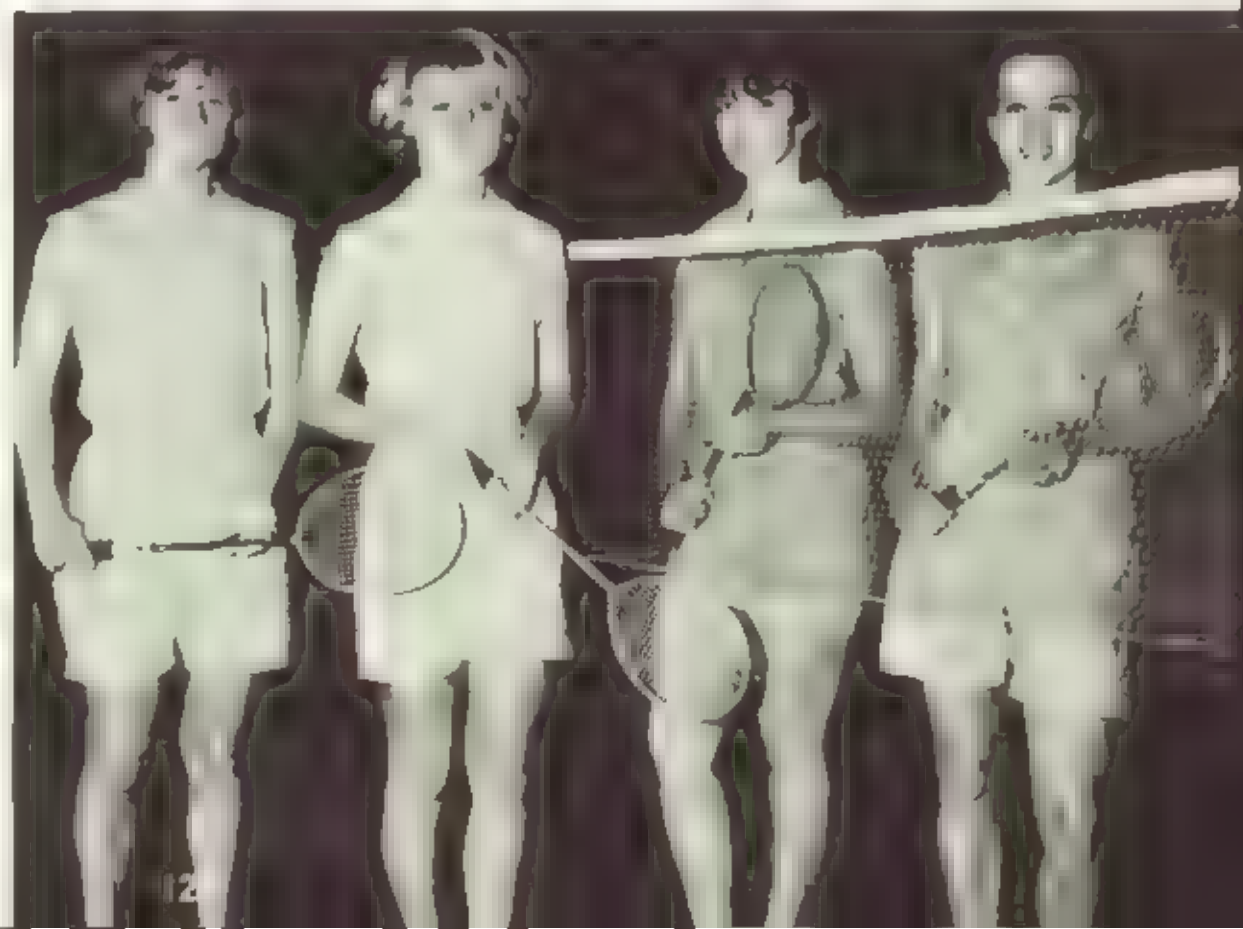

Preparing for gymnastics meets, Carole Gietz practices her routine on the uneven parallel bars.

Gymnastics, Badminton Clubs Develop Skill, Grace, Coordination

Posed for a photo after discussing the final tally of their badminton game are Sandy Stair, Betty Kruger, Carole Gietz and Pam Fryer, all seniors.

Lively Girls Push WHS School Spirit

The enthusiasm of the 1975-76 cheering squad was so great that Washington school spirit soared, winning the student body much praise from other schools. Member of the Varsity Cheering Squad are: Top Row: Lynn Oxenbro, Jan Walsh, Kathy Stratton. Bottom Row: Kathe Anderson, Diane Stone, Donna McDermott.

Pompon co-captains, Teri Ong and Pam Welch, lead the girls in lively routines

Long hours of practice by pompon girls, cheerleaders and acrobatic dancers made it possible for these girls to inspire the fans so that one referee remarked that in all of his years in sports he had never seen such spirit as he witnessed at WHS

A new addition to the spirit of WHS, the Rambleairs, Janice Gates and Patty Sparkes perform acrobatic routines.

Junior varsity boys are cheered on by Sharon Zimmerman, Diane Straughn, Shirley Placek, and Linda Suarez, captain

Girls Athletic Association Foster Athletics, Service

GAA fosters interest in athletics by sponsoring after-school sports programs. Activities Council sponsors 14 different swimming, gymnastics and other sports.

By donating money as well as their own points toward a GAA letter.

Cheering up sick children at Christmas, helping veterans sell poppies and a lot of other activities were some of the activities during the year.

Play days with other schools taught the girls sportsmanship and gave them a chance to make new friends.

Gridders Have 2-6-2 Season

Possible disaster for the Rams is shown by the grief in player Jim Kees' face.

In a ten game season of ups and downs, Coach Ed Sine's gridders won two, lost six, and tied two. Valley powerhouses such as Scottsdale, Glendale, and St. Mary's gave the Rams a good trouncing.

But in other instances the Rams surprised experts by tying Brophy. Cortez went down to a humiliating 41-0 defeat in the season's finale.

Ed Kalwara looks intent as he watches Gary Batsell kick for the extra point.

Anxiety and joy are shown on the faces of the WHS fans.

Rams Take Fourth In Division Play

Coach Kent Brigg's basketball team finished the season with an 8-9 record, which netted them a fourth place finish in Division IV. At the end of the regular season, Washington was tied with Brophy, Glendale, and Prescott, but because they had a better record in competition with these teams they were awarded the fourth spot.

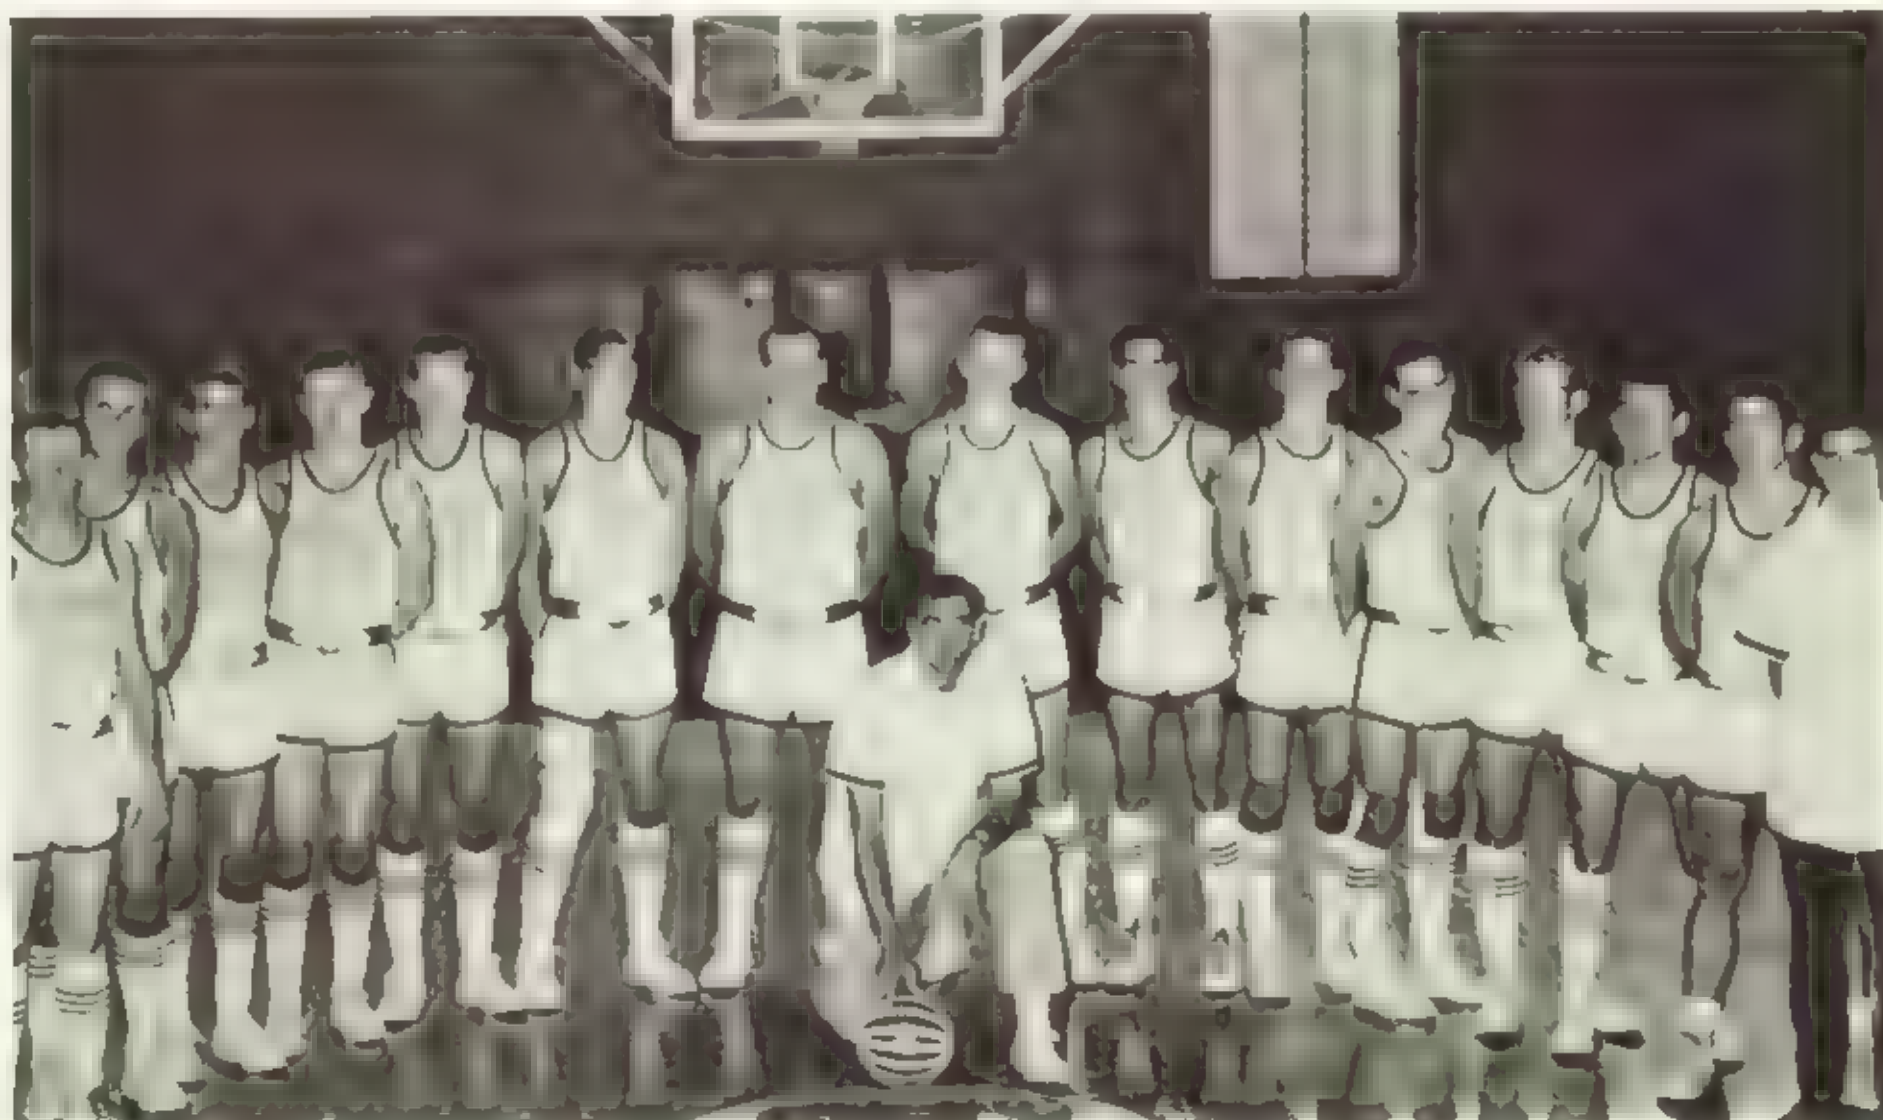

The first four place teams of each division met in the inter-divisional playoffs where the rams were downed by Coronado 97-67.

The year's scoring attack was led by Leigh Prettyman and Tom Siewers, who averaged 14.1 and 11.7 points respectively. Leigh's high average included a school record of 35 points in one game.

Larry Kuch was top rebounder for the second year in a row, averaging 11.0 rebounds per game. The Ram's defensive standout was Tom Reid.

Ends And Begins

Marleen Ayers

To everything there is a beginning and an end. For 513 seniors, graduation marks the end of four years of hard work, determination, heartaches, fun, and good times

It also signifies the beginning of a new and challenging life—college, a job, or perhaps military service

Probably never again will the seniors all be together except in thought and between the pages of this book

Sophomores Hold Lively Election Campaign

Early in the year the sophomores began their campaigns for class officers. After a flurry of poster viewing and deliberation, the voters chose their leaders. Discussing class projects are: Vicki Murdock, treasurer; Jonnie Madson, vice-president;

Cathy Kitchens, publicity manager; Grayce Newton, secretary, and Ron Curry, president. Supervising is Mrs. Dorothy Delvin, sponsor.

This is a hard hat to earn. Wear it proudly. And after you've laid it aside, be sure to keep in mind the things you've learned that made it possible for you to wear your cap and gown — diligence, hard work, studiousness and keeping a goal always before you. Remember these and you'll wear hats that are much harder to earn in life.

REMARKABLE!

It really is remarkable how much you get for so little when you have a First National Bank Custom Checking Account.

- Free Personalized Checks
- Free Monthly Statements
- Free Checkbook Covers

. . . Of Saying Farewell And It Is Hard . . .

For everything there is a
 beginning
 and an end—in the beginning I was given the task
 of introducing the 1966
 PANORAMA and it was easy,
 but now
 I have been given the assignment
 of saying farewell and it is hard—
 I am not only saying adieu
 to the staff who has worked so hard
 and put up with me for so long not only to the frustrations and the joys
 of producing this annual,
 but to the people and the campus
 and the life
 I knew here—I would like to name

everyone who helped me, for in reality I did very little,
 but the shortage
 of space will not allow it—and so in ending
 I would like to explain the picture opposite—it is a tradition
 beginning
